Footnotes

LEO was last early, rallied in the five path into the stretch, briefly lost footing in upper stretch and wore down the leader to get up late. CUMBER raced off the pace, moved up readily on the turn, led to deep stretch and was beat late but second best. KATE'S GOLDEN DUDE was up close, between horses on the turn, unable to stay with the top pair but kept on for third. SPATETACULAR JOE was close till near the turn, dropped back off the pace but improved position late. KITCHI showed speed inside, was hounded by foes to the turn, lost the lead mid turn while at the rail and evened out down the stretch. ALL HANSENS ONDECK was bumped at the start, chased from second and faltered in upper stretch. DARK ARDEN was bumped at the start, pulled up early and vanned off.
