Footnotes

WOLF EYES trailed into the far turn, circled rivals willingly, drew on even terms for the lead in upper stretch, dug in under left handed urging and got up in the final strides. GOLDEN TEMPLE pressed the pace two wide for four and one half furlongs, made the lead, set the pace into the stretch, dug in gamely when joined by the winner but finished second best. ROAD TEST stalked the early pace, moved closer three wide into the far turn then failed to sustain that bid. HOMEROM ANGEL failed to menace. MANHATTAN LADY had speed for a half then faded. STYLISH ASH sped to the lead soon after the start, set the pace for four and one half furlongs, remained close into the stretch then faltered. TUDOX RUE MAJESTIC had good early speed near the inside and was through after a half.
